

We introduce ourselves to Alltech WASNER

Alltech WASNER is an independent company with many years of experience in advising and looking for ideas for customers in industrial construction and housing for applications in the areas of protection and well-being, mechanical engineering, building and railway technology has been a focus of our offer since the beginning.

From consulting and concept development to development, industrialization and production to maintenance, we offer the entire range of services. By combining development and production under one roof and from a single source, our customers save valuable time and money.

Our own products such as:

- Leak detectors to prevent water damage
- And especially something for wellness
- Water disinfection using silver ions for process and drinking water

Alltech WASNER is committed to Switzerland as a trading and manufacturing location and is continuing to expand capacities. The well-trained employees as well as the modern motivation stand for well-engineered products and guarantee a high quality of advice. To ensure that the industry will continue to have enough qualified personnel in the future, we attach great importance to promoting young talent and training electronics technicians.

our values

With our thoughts and actions, we promote environmentally friendly concepts and technologies over the entire life cycle of our products. We act in an open, collegial and team-oriented manner and solve tasks holistically, goal-oriented and cost-consciously. Thanks to our conscientious team, we offer you the best support in the implementation of your projects. We are very proud of our hard-working and competent employees.

Principles

Breaking new ground is a tradition for us. Despite all the changes, we maintain our corporate principles and an intact balance between our guiding principles:

- Independence

When assessing, we are always independent of third parties, especially when decisions about suppliers or other partners of the client are pending.

- Objectivity

Our advice takes into account all opportunities and risks - strengths and weaknesses.

- Competence

We advise in areas in which we have proven competence or have acquired it.

- Passion

The committed commitment to our customers and their demanding goals is important to us personally.

- Confidentiality

None of the information obtained or dealt with in the consultation is passed on to third parties.

Our business and start-up consultancy

We would be happy to discuss the cornerstones of your future corporate goals with you in a personal consultation.

A personal conversation cannot replace a website.
